

- Position: BEHAVIOUR CONSULTANT, Children's Inclusion Support Services
Supports the inclusion of children with special needs by observing, consulting, training and developing effective behaviour strategies to be implemented in licensed child care programs. This support is for children who are eligible for CISS behavioural support.
- Union: Permanent, Full-Time, unionized position
- Salary: $52, 015 to $61,516 per annum
- Location: Suite 600-700 Industrial Avenue, Ottawa
- Qualifications: Diploma in Early Childhood Education or Equivalent plus specialized diploma/ certificate (Behavioral Science Diploma, Resource Teacher Certificate, Early Interventionist Certificate, BA Psychology, or equivalent)
- Five years experience in a related consultant position or equivalent working with children and families with demonstrated experience and knowledge working with behavior strategies in an early learning environment.
- Three years working with children with special needs
- Strong knowledge and understanding of licensed child care programs
- Clear Police Record Check (Vulnerable sector) completed in the last 6 months
- Current Standard First Aid and CPR certification an asset
- Strong organizational, time management, group presentation and facilitation skills.
- Ability to work independently and also as a team member
- Ability to deal with competing priorities
- Demonstrated sensitivity in supporting families
- Ability to work flexible hours as required
- Use of a car is essential
- Knowledge of MSWord for windows and PowerPoint
- Responsibilities: Supports the inclusion of children with special needs by observing, consulting, training and developing effective behaviour guidance strategies to be implemented in licensed child care programs. This support is for children who are eligible for CISS behavioural support. Through the Positive Outcomes Program, prevention strategies are offered through the support of the Behaviour Consultant for children who do not qualify for CISS. Advocates on behalf of children with special needs in the community; develops and provides training to staff, parents and others through workshops and in-services; creates resource material to be available to programs; identifies needs for public education and provides input to educational programs

Hours of Work: 35 hours per week

Available from : February 20th, 2018

Apply: E-mail: hrrecruiting@afchildrensservices.ca

Closing date: February 12th, 2018

We thank all applicants for their interest; however only those selected for an interview will be contacted. This position is open to both male and female applicants

Should the applicant require accommodations during the application process please notify Human Resources as per the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disability Act. .