

JOB OPPORTUNITY:
FULL-TIME REECE Resource Consultant (2 positions)
Location: Waterloo Region

This position will support the Entry to School Program in partnership with KidsAbility. The Entry to School (ETS) program is part of the new early years' service pathway in the needs-based Ontario Autism Program (OAP). This program will support families with young children up to 6 years of age who are registered with the OAP and who are starting school for the first time (either Kindergarten or grade one).

The group-based program will focus on preparing children to enter school, and target skill-building within the following six domains: communication, play, social interaction, functional routines, behavioural self-management, pre-academics, and learning and attention. Children will attend for up to six months of service, either mornings or afternoons, five days per week. Consultation will then be provided to schools to support the child's successful transition to their home school for the following six months.

The ETS team is a multidisciplinary team consisting of Board Certified Behaviour Analysts, Instructor Therapists, Autism Assistants, Resource Consultants, a Speech and Language Pathologist, and an Occupational Therapist.

Requirements:

- Early Childhood Education degree or Diploma, a Resource Teacher certificate (or equivalency), be registered and in good standing with the College of Early Childhood Educators (Ontario) and a minimum of two years' direct experience working in a licensed early learning and childcare program with children who have complex needs.
- Experience supporting children with ASD and their families is an asset.
- Must have a good knowledge of child development, child care best practices, family dynamics, inclusive early learning, early childhood/special needs programming, and the Child Care and Early Years Act, 2014 (CCEY) and the Child and Family Services Act (CFSA), Province of Ontario.
- Demonstrated competency and skill in the use of computers and software (e.g., MS Office, databases, e-mail, internet).
- Current Standard First Aid is an asset.
- Access to reliable transportation.

Schedule: The position is for 40 hours per week (some flexibility required)

Applicants must submit a resume and cover letter with a summary of relevant qualifications and their reason for interest by Monday, January 24, 2022:
